As an employee of Tri-Way Theatre, Inc., your primary objective is to make the customer feel welcome. If they feel welcome and important, they will return with friends or family members. Your job is to make the entire theatre experience one that the patron will remember with fondness. Tri-Way Theatre sets the highest standards for theatre exhibition, which includes fast and efficient, friendly customer service. Tri-Way Theatre employees excel as a team to provide a clean and safe atmosphere, demonstrates initiative, and develop work ethics they will carry with them in anything they do.

An added benefit for high school students desiring a reference for college, is that you will be working under Dr. David Kinney (Ph.D., M.S., R.D.)

As an security guard, concession attendant or ticket cashier, your responsibilities will include (but not limited to) greeting and interacting with patrons, directing patrons to their theatre, cash transactions for concessions and tickets, preparing and dispensing high quality products, restocking supplies, and maintaining a clean environment. To help accomplish these tasks, an employee will need to listen, speak clearly, observe visually, bend or reach as well as do some lifting up to 50 pounds, and stands for long periods of time (although Tri-Way Theatre firmly believes that employee breaks are necessary to maintain the highest degree of employee concentration, and therefore customer service).
